

Information Law and Policy Centre

ILPC Annual Conference and Lecture 2018: Call for papers

Transforming Cities with Artificial Intelligence: Law, Policy, and Ethics 23 November 2018

The ILPC is delighted to announce that this year's Annual Lecture will be delivered by Baroness Onora O'Neill. A crossbench Member of Parliament and Emeritus Professor of Philosophy, Baroness O'Neill was Principal of Newnham College, Cambridge from 1992-2006, President of the British Academy from 2005-9, chaired the Nuffield Foundation from 1998-2010, and has been a crossbench member of the House of Lords since 2000 (Baroness O'Neill of Bengarve).

Call for Papers – Deadline: Friday 13th July 2018 (5pm, BST). A link to the call for papers is available here.

Call for contributions

The Information Law and Policy Centre (ILPC) is compiling a submission in response to the recent call for evidence to the consultation on the activities and work of the new Centre for Data Ethics and Innovation. A link to the consultation is available here.

Evidence is due by 5th September 2018.

As part of the ILPC's submission, we are keen to receive contributions from our network. Please contact Dr Rachel Adams at rachel.adams@sas.ac.uk.

Updates from the Centre

- Dr Nóra Ni Loideain, ILPC Director, interviewed Max Schrems, Privacy Rights Campaigner, at Trinity College Dublin on GDPR, the EU-US Privacy Shield and Edward Snowden. A link to the article is available here.
- Dr Nóra Ni Loideain, “A Game Changer for Research? GDPR and Health-Related Data”, Joint Academic Workshop, University of Cape Town and University of Western Cape (Invited speaker).
- Dr Nóra Ni Loideain, “Cape Town as a Smart and Safe City: Is this Minority Report?” Faculty of Humanities, University of Johannesburg (Keynote speaker).
- Dr Rachel Adams, ILPC Early Career Researcher, presented on the ethics of smart cities at the meeting of the Automated Number Plate Recognition Advisory Board of the Surveillance Camera Commissioner. Dr Adams will be joining the ANPR Advisory Board on an ongoing basis as a board member.
- Dr Rachel Adams was a speaker at University of London, Leading Women – Transforming Lives: Women and Education Event. A recorded video of the event is available here.

- Dr Rachel Adams presented a paper on 'The Discourse of Transparency' at the International Institute of Social Studies and Erasmus School of Law conference on 'Human rights inside and outside', The Hague.

Publication of ILPC's written evidence on 'The Internet: To Regulate or Not to Regulate' from the House of Lords Select Committee on Communications.

The submission outlines four key issues:

- Whether Internet regulation could do more to enhance the protection of human rights;
- Whether Internet regulation could do more to enhance the protection of freedom of expression;
- The use of deceased's data (in response to Question 6 of the call to evidence: What information should online platforms provide to users about the use of their personal data?);
- The role of the UK as a world leader in Internet regulation.

A link to the published evidence is available here.

Updates from our network

- Mr Peter Coe was appointed as a ILPC Research Associate. Mr Coe will be delivering a lecture entitled 'You cannot be serious! An analysis of UK defamation law' at Gonville & Caius College Cambridge, 9th July 2018.
- Dr Richard Danbury was invited to present a paper at the Justice for Freedom of Expression Conference at Columbia University.
- Professor Lorna M. Woods participated in an All-Party Parliamentary Group on the rule of Law in relation to AI.
- Professor Lorna M. Woods published a series of blogs on Carnegie UK – picked up by LSE Media Policy blog (this will be turned into a policy brief and will be presented at the ILPC at an event for the International Institute of Communications (IIC))

Funding and awards

2018-2021: EPSRC Network Grant, Human-Data Interaction Project (Awarded).

The ILPC has been appointed as Project Organiser for the research strand on 'Beyond Smart Cities', Awarded by Engineering, Physics and Science Research Council.

Follow us on Twitter

ILPC Website

You are receiving these emails because you have expressed an interest in the Centre's activities.
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

This email was sent to <<Email Address>>

why did I get this? unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

Information Law and Policy Centre · Institute of Advanced Legal Studies · 17 Russell Square · London, London WC1B 5DR ·
United Kingdom

MailChimp